Pastor's Column

By Evan Cameron, pastor

In Thanksgiving

Every March, I re-watch a documentary called "Survive and Advance" on the 1983 NC State championship basketball team, coached by Jim Valvano. They were the cinderella of cinderellas, and once they reached the Final Four, NC State threw a big pep rally for them before they left for Albuquerque. Some school officials tried to sneak them out the back to avoid the hysteria of the huge crowds, and Coach Valvano had nothing to do with it. "Sneak them where? How many pep rallies have been thrown for you in your life? Some people get zero!"

Not everyone gets a surprise birthday party thrown for them either, especially a surprise party involving over 100 guests, rows of homemade goodies, and dozens of cards - all at 'work' no less. I wanted to formally say thank you to all of you for making me feel so valued and cared for - with family living 20+ hours away, you all are our family here. And we were so grateful to celebrate with you. Kudos to all of you for keeping it under wraps. It was a birthday I'll always remember.

A word about Partners in Health

Thanks too for the gifts designated to my favorite charity. PIH is on the ground in Lesotho (where Katharine and I met) as well as Haiti, Peru, Rwanda, and other nations. They are the very best global health organization I know in the work of accompaniment rather than just handouts. Their mission statement is below -

Our mission is to provide a preferential option for the poor in health care. By establishing long-term relationships with sister organizations based in settings of poverty, Partners In Health strives to achieve two overarching goals: to bring the benefits of modern medical science to those most in need of them and to serve as an antidote to despair. At its root, our mission is both medical and moral. It is based on solidarity, rather than charity alone.

Pastor Evan

DORCAS CIRCLE met on March 15th for quilting and Bible Study. Present were Dorothy W., Anna, Florence, Anita, Vernice, Dorothy T, Jessie and Venetia.

Anna opened the Bible Study with prayer. Session 3 focused on eternal life. The contributor for the lesson was Dr. Mark Allan Powell and his opinion is that God has given us eternal life now and it flows into the future. God loves us and this love goes through us to other people and this makes a difference in the world.

Our next meeting is April 10th with quilting at 10:00 am and Bible Study at 3:00 pm. May 1 is Rachel's Day and there will be a cash collection for CASA. In April, Anita and Anna are doing kitchen care. Jessie was the March hostess; Florence is April hostess. March offering was $10. Respectfully submitted, Jessie Kokemor

SYMPATHIES

Sympathies to Family of Lucile Bockhorn 90, widow of Herbert C. Bockhorn, passed away Feb 27, 2022. She was born in Brenham on June 20, 1931.

Lucile was baptized, confirmed, and married at St. James where she was a life long member. Lucile attended New Wehdem School. She retired in 1992 from the House-keeping Department of the former Trinity Medical Center. She enjoyed decorating her home for all the seasonal holidays, but her favorite was Christmas. She looked forward to having her granddaughters and great-grandchildren over to bake and decorate their traditional Christmas sugar cookies. But most of all, Lucile looked forward to the weekly Sunday evening family get together at her home.

Funeral service was March 6 at St. James with burial in Prairie Lea Cemetery.

Sympathies to Family of Connor Christian Samuel Adams 22, passed away Feb 28, 2022 in Los Angeles, California. He was born on July 21, 1999 in Bryan, Texas to Scott and Julie Adams.

Connor was a unique and creative soul. He was an awesome guitar player who LOVED music, including all genres and even wrote his own music. He loved fishing, surfing and working out. He loved to travel to the Hill Country and the beach in Port Aransas.

Funeral service was March 8 at St. James Lutheran Church with burial in the church cemetery.

SUNDAY WORSHIP

St. Paul 9:00am

St James 10:30am

April 3 5th Sunday in Lent
Isaiah 43:16-21, Ps 126,
Philippians 3:4b-14, John 12:1-8
Our God makes all things new.
In baptism God's new person (you!) rises daily from the deadly mire of trespasses and sins.

April 10 Palm Sunday
Isaiah 50:4-9a, Ps 31:9-16, Philippians
2:5-11, Luke 22:14—23:56
On this Sunday we follow Christ from triumphal entry to the cross.
We have walked the Lenten pathway these forty days. We enter this holy week accompanying Jesus to the cross with both grief and thanksgiving in our hearts trusting in God's redeeming love.

April 17 Easter Sunday
Acts 10:34-43, Ps 118:1-2, 14-24, 1
Corinthians 15:19-26, Luke 24:1-12 The last enemy to be destroyed is death. Today Christ is risen and we gather together with astonishment and
joy. Christ is risen indeed!
Alleluia!

April 24 2nd Sunday of Easter
Acts 5:27-32, Ps. 118:14-29, Rev.
1:4-8, John 20:19-31. In spite of all we have heard and seen, it is often hard to believe. Because it is hard to believe, the risen Jesus will return to us again and again in the mystery of holy communion, inviting us to touch and taste his presence, and offering us his peace.
