2020 Vision

I absolutely remember the day I failed my vision test at elementary school. I was mortified at the thought of glasses—how could you play basketball with glasses? How could you still “be cool” with glasses? That day, I went home with so much anxiety that I convinced my parents to let me start directly with contacts in 4th grade. It was a rare “child wins negotiations” moment.

“For us in this shared ministry, 2020 vision is about seeing long distance, too”

The funny thing about failing a vision test, of course, is that as a kid, until you get corrective lenses, you don't really know what you cannot see. I just assumed everyone couldn't see the board from the third row of desks in the classroom. With contacts came a “wow!” factor of details appearing in my life previously missed. The same thing happened to my sister; we discovered she needed glasses after famously uttering: “Oh, there were faces on those rocks!” upon seeing printed pictures of a past family trip to Mt. Rushmore, where she thought everyone was just taking photos of the bighorn sheep and white limestone.

Probably about every pastor in the world is writing their January 2020 column with some type of pun or allusion to 2020 vision. Most companies and organizations are likely doing the same. For us in this shared ministry, 2020 vision is about seeing long distance, too—not literally of course, but long distance as in the long future of our shared life together.

When our shared ministry team visited with leaders from the four church Fayette County ministry, they were clear that they established some initial patterns and structures, but as the partnership became successful, things evolved and changed as creativity and new ideas kept flowing in. They've now been in existence for decades and are still going strong. And—they are still often changing structures to continue healthy partnerships between each church.

For us—we might easily assume that we already have this whole shared ministry thing down! After all, 2019 was pretty smooth sailing, repeating many of the same shared events as 2018. But now that we have some roots grown, I hope to spend the year learning from the many long term shared ministries that exist to see what our long term vision might include. Surely we have more places where we can build relationships and work together in our call to be the hands and feet of Christ.

“Wind Down Wednesdays” for Young Adults and Families

First Gathering: Wed., Jan. 29th, 6pm
at St. James Family Life Center

In this shared ministry partnership, we are blessed with the gift of an abundance of young adults and young families between St. Paul and St. James. Starting in 2020, we’re setting a standing date to gather on the last Wednesday of the month. There will be faith conversations/activities for both adults and for children. Some weeks we’ll be together, and some weeks we’ll have adults and kids separate.

While we won’t be having a meal, the goal is for a mix of fellowship and faith conversations to exist together. We hope that this can be a time to pause toward the end of each month, seek some spiritual renewal, and share together about following Jesus in the midst of busy lives.

There’s no expectation to attend every month—just a hope and prayer to create space for this age group to talk about faith growing and changing in the middle of life.

We’ll gather at 6pm, and be together for around 1 hour. Hope you can join!

Updates from the Confirmation Class

We have 9 students going through the Old Testament this fall (St Paul—Mia S., Cole and Jaylen T., Chloe and Phoebe R. + St James—Tyler and Eli F., Kerby K., Colin G.)

Our topics have included Genesis, Exodus, Ruth, Job, Psalms, Jonah, the major prophets (Isaiah, Ezekiel, Jeremiah), and Esther!

We're continuing to get to know each other better each week, and together are doing some great work learning how to read and interpret scripture in healthy ways. In the springtime, we'll move to the New Testament, covering Jesus, the gospels, and Paul. "Year 2" of confirmation will focus on what it means to be Lutheran and what being a disciple of Jesus looks like in modern times.

We meet on the 1st Sunday every month after church, and the 3rd Wednesday every month.

SUNDAY WORSHIP

St. Paul: 9am

St. James: 10:30am

January 5 | Epiphany Sunday

Isaiah 60:1-6, Psalm 72:1-7, 10-14,

Ephesians 3:1-12, Matthew 2:1-12

The magi follow the star upon Herod's request....and have the wisdom to not return to him.

January 12 | Baptism of our Lord

Isaiah 42:1-9, Psalm 29

Acts 10:34-43, Matthew 3:13-17

Jesus meets John in the river, and the Spirit descends as foretold by the prophet Isaiah

January 19 | Epiphany 2

Isaiah 49:1-7, Psalm 40:1-11

1 Corinthians 1:1-9, John 1:29-42

John teaches that Jesus is the Lamb of God, and Jesus responds by beginning his recruitment work, inviting Andrew and Simon Peter to "come and see."

January 26 | Epiphany 3

Isaiah 9:1-4, Psalm 27:1, 4-9

1 Corinthians 1:10-18, Matthew 4:12-23

Images of light dominate, as more disciples join the new movement. Meanwhile, John the Baptist is arrested and imprisoned, and Jesus' ministry begins to carry a sense of urgency.

Pastor Evan's Eco-Tip of the Month

As we all take down outdoor and indoor Christmas lights....here's some info for lighting in the rest of your house!

Both LED and CFL lights save energy and money.

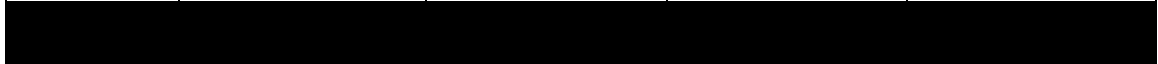

- CFL (compact florescent light) bulbs use about  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the energy as traditional bulbs. They also last much longer than standard bulbs—typically around 10,000 hours.
- Don't be turned off by the higher price of these bulbs. After about 500 hours of use, they pay for themselves.
- However, for the best option: LED lights cost a bit more than CFLs, yet they use less energy and last longer than even CFLs.
- LED lights use 80-90% less energy consumption, and can last up to 100,000 hours

Some food for thought for us who worship the Light of the World
